Numb. 6448

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 4. to Saturday January 8. 1725.

Whitehall, January 8.

YEsterday about Noon a Messenger arrived from Rye, with Advice, That His Majesty continued (God be praised) in perfect Health, and had intended to have begun his Journey on Thursday Morning; but the Roads in that Part of the Country being mostly raised between Ditches, and those Ditches filled with Drifts of Snow which had fallen very thick, it was found necessary to give Orders for the clearing of the Ways so as to make His Majesty's Passage safe. His Majesty determined to set out on Friday the 7th, and had ordered his Coaches to attend at Nine in the Morning at a Place called the Point, whither His Majesty was to cross the Water from Rye. His Majesty designed to lye last Night at Hythe, this Night at Sittingborne, and to be at St. James's To-Morrow Night or on Monday at furthest.

Trustees-Office South-Sea-House, Dec. 17, 1725.

The Trustees appointed by Act of Parliament for Raising Money out of the Estates of the late Directors of the South-Sea Company, and others, give Notice, That they intend to expose to Sale by Cant or Auction, to the best Bidder, in the Hall of the South-Sea House, on Wednesday the 19th Day of January next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, the several Estates following, viz. The Manor of Chillcompton in the County of Somerset, with the Lands and Tenements thereto belonging, late the Estate of Francis Hawes, Esq; (one of the said late Directors;) Several Farms at Havering Park in the County of Essex, late the Estate of Richard Houlditch, Esq; (one of the said late Directors;) A Freehold House in Thames-street London, a Freehold House at Rochford in the County of Essex, and a Copyhold Estate at Stanmoor in the County of Middlesex, late the Estate of John Turner, Esq; (one of the said late Directors;) And also a Reversion in Fee after the Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Turner, of and in two Houses in Mark-Lane, and two Houses in St. Lawrence-Lane in the City of London, and of and in a Farm at Stoke in the County of Suffolk, late the Estate of the said John Turner: The Estate and Interest late of Mr. Robert Knight (late Cashier of the said Company,) and of Mr. Robert Surman (late Deputy Cashier of the said Company,) in the Marshalsea of the King's-Bench Prison in Southwark, in the County of Surrey; Several Houses in Charles-street in the City of Westminster, late the Estate of the said Mr. Robert Surman. Particulars of the said Estates may be had at the Trustees said Office.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majesty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a considerable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Person concerned in the said Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by advising or contriving the same, will surrender himself and make a free Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them shall be apprehended and convicted for the same, such Person, whether concerned in the said Felony, or in advising, contriving or being privy thereto, shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement shall have a Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. And if any other Person or Persons shall discover, apprehend, and convict any Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, he or they shall receive the like Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.
